Dear MCC Members and Friends,

It has been several weeks since my ordination ceremony and I am still riding high on the Spirit of the day! It was a beautiful celebration of ministry and community. I am so grateful to everyone who made the day sacred and special. The MCC JOY Choir lifted us in song. Randy Loyd and Rev. Bob Green offered words of prayer and welcome. Our deacons and elders shined in their leadership and service. Our hospitality team was out in force feeding and welcoming all our guests. I felt such pride and admiration for who we are, and will forever consider the occasion one of the greatest gifts I've ever received in my life. Thank you!

Yet, even as we celebrated one person's call to ministerial leadership, our ceremony was a reminder that each of us has a "calling to which we've been called." Paul's word from Ephesians 4 affirms that each of us has a unique gift to share and an important part to play in the larger Body of Christ. By way of our baptism, we are all ordained to serve and lead in the manner of Jesus. Every gift, part, and person are important. When our gifts come together the church comes alive!

November will bring many more opportunities for us to live into that calling to which we've been called. Read on and jump in this month as we celebrate all that God has ordained in us, together!

With Gratitude,
John

Courtney Roberts, Vicki Fritz, Robbie Humphrey, Pastor John DeLaporte, and Barbara Moran pack Missouri Personal Hygiene Kits for Festival of Sharing. Barbara will deliver 26 completed kits to add to others from across the state. Estimated value of the kits is $780! Way to go MCC! The recipients will appreciate your generosity.

I would like to thank each and every one of you for the prayers, cards, calls and food during my knee surgery and recovery. It was really appreciated by both of us. This church has been a blessing to us with friendships. May God bless each and everyone of you.

Hello,

The preschoolers had a great first month back at MPS! The students are still in the swing of learning how to be great friends to one another and adjusting to MPS and are doing great! New this week is experimenting with tops and they are having so much fun. We have another creek trip coming up next week and the kids are looking forward to it.

Alumni School students have decided to study weather this year and are in full swing.

We have the dates we will need to take all our items down for the month of October (11th and 18th) and we are prepared for that, as well.

Thanks so much!

Brooke Calvin

STEWARSHIP REPORT

We approached Commitment Sunday on October 12 with concern and a great deal of optimism, as the proposed aspirational budget was appreciably higher than that for last year. Somewhat like a logging company owner desired when hiring a new lumberjack, we hoped for the best. The prospective logger was asked about their experience and stated that they'd worked in the Sahara Forest. The owner asked, "Do you mean the Sahara Desert?" And the applicant stated, "Well it is now." This indicated a good start!

While we don't know if the new lumberjack worked out, we can speak to how the pledge drive is going. The results so far evoke the twins who were identical in all things except, one was a pessimist and the other an optimist. Both received identical Lego sets for their birthday. The pessimist saw the pile of small blocks and commented, "What will I do with these, they are easy to lose, I might swallow one, and I doubt that there are enough to build anything interesting." But the optimist declared, "Wow these are great, they come in good sizes, and I can use them to build something that should encourage others to provide more for an even larger project."

As of the end of October, MCC Administrative Assistant Brenda Williamson reports that, so far, 16 pledges have been turned in, which will cover approximately 73% of the draft budget. In years past this percentage has varied higher and lower, indicating that it is possible to meet our aspirations. Folks who haven't can still pledge and we all can follow the optimistic twin's lead and work to build something larger as the fiscal year unfolds.

Make a Joyful Noise!

Carol Choir, for children and youth, is forming to participate in the Christmas Program which will be Dec. 14 during worship. We will learn a couple of songs during the Children's Bible Study time after worship on Nov. 2 and Dec. 7. Joy Choir (just older youth) will plan times to practice. Let Barbara Moran know if you want to join the group for the Christmas season.

Christmas Play Practices!

We'll get organized and read through the script that Jeff has prepared on Sunday, Nov. 23. If you want to participate in the play, please be at this meeting after worship.

Jeff has talked with several people about parts for them in the play. Let him know if you want to join the fun! Only one part left; are you in or out?

Full play practices will be Saturdays December 6 and 13 at 10:30 am.

The performance will be Sunday morning, Dec. 14. The play includes the reading of the Christmas story from Luke, and both choirs will provide music, as well as carols sung by us all. What a lovely way to get into the Christmas spirit!

Christmas Luncheon

All are welcome to enjoy fried chicken at the annual Christmas Luncheon, after worship on Dec. 14. Plan to attend and please bring a large salad or vegetable or dessert to share at the meal.
